Biography:

I am unlike a lot of the young drivers because I listened to my dad when he said, "Son, you need to get an education." Which was exactly what I did. After graduating I opened up a graphic design studio that grew into a very successful marketing and advertising firm. Now I understand exactly what a sponsor is looking for when it comes to ROI and measurability. Racing has been in my blood since birth and I have yet to escape it. The faster I go the more it draws me in for racing is my passion. I am determined to push myself to run the best I can with the equipment I have, and bring my current fan base, all the way to cup!
